So What is the Quaker Difference ?

We ask ourselves this every day, and while the legacy of our Company continues to evolve to meet the ever changing and growing needs seen throughout the world of Windows and Doors, our Core Values have never wavered over the 75 years that we have been in business.

We Listen - Your Voice is the key to our continued learning and spurs the strategic plans we build and implement across all 3 of our intertwined business segments each and every day.

We See - Your Visions are what drive us forward to create the products and services that support who You are, helping define Quaker as the industry leader in the manufacturing of Windows and Doors.

We Share - We Value our Partnerships and continue to share Best in Business practices with both our Customers and Suppliers, cross linking relationships and forming bonds that collectively grow, prosper and last.
